PTS. RAJAN & SAJAN MISRA (born 1951, 1956) hail from the holy city of Banaras (Varanasi), which is home to some of the world's best vocalists, instrumentalists, percussionists and dancers. They belong to a family of eminent musicians of the Banaras Gharana. Born in an illustrious family, music came to them as the first breath of life and they grew up in an atmosphere of intense learning. A family of maestros that comprises of legends such as Pandit Ganesh Ji Misra (Great Grandfather), Pandit Sursahai Misra, Pandit Bade Ram Das Ji Misra (Grandfather), Pandit Hanuman Misra (Father), and Pandit Gopal Misra (Uncle).

Highly regarded as the most successful duo of our times, Pandits Rajan and Sajan Misra are known for their extensive repertoire of Khayal. Endowed with sonorous and sensitive voices, the Misra brothers have also excelled in rendering light classical forms such as Tappa, Tarana and Bhajan.

Having performed at major concerts all over India and abroad, Rajan-Sajan Misra's creativity and contribution to the art have won them "Padma Bhushan", third in the hierarchy of civilian awards, after the Bharat Ratna and the Padma Vibhushan.

Accompanying them on tabla is Shri Subhen Chatterjee and Shri Sanatan Goswami on harmonium.
