

Bharatiya Vidya Bhawan, USA

Cordially Invites you to an evening of

SAROD JUGALBANDI

Anirban Dasgupta

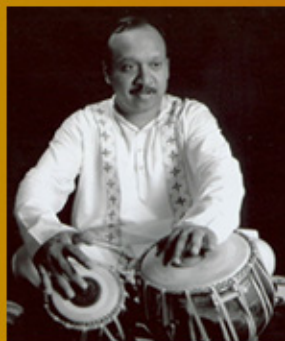

Anirban is the youngest son and disciple of Pt. Buddhadev Dasgupta. A wonderful product of innate talent, years of grueling toil and delicate musical nurture, Anirban remains an extremely humble and self-effacing artist. He has performed widely in India as well as in the UK, Netherlands, Germany, Belgium and USA.

Soumya Chakraverty

Based in Washington DC, Soumya is the disciple of Pt. Samarendra Nath Sikdar of Shahjahanpur Gharana. For more than a decade, Soumya has been performing throughout the US, and Collaborated with other forms of world music such as Flamenco dance Latin American percussion, Middle Eastern vocals and Indian Classical instrumental music.

Debu Nayak

Devapriya Nayak (Debu) began learning tabla at the age of three from his grandfather, Chaudhury Kausalya Nandan, and later, became a disciple of Pt. Radhakanta Nandi of the Benaras Gharana. In the US he continued his tabla taalim from Maestros like Ustad Zakir Hussain, Pandit Anindo Chatterjee and Pt. Samir Chatterjee. Debu is an accomplished soloist and accompanist. He is also the director of the Washington DC Chapter of Chhandayan

Time: November 12, 2011; Time: 6:30 PM

Venue: Bhavan's Romanti Auditorium, 305, 7th Avenue, 17th Floor
(Between 27th & 28th streets), New York, NY-10001

ALL ARE WELCOME

SPONSORS:

Mrs. Rosemarie & Mr.H.R.Shah (TV ASIA) ; Mrs.Trupti & Kenny Desai ; Drs. Rashmi & Navin Mehta

PROGRAM SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT PRIOR NOTICE